

Name

Future continuous 2

The future continuous can be used to project ourselves into the future.

Examples

- This time next week I will be working in my new job.
- By Easter I will be in Spain on holidays.
- Next Monday you will be swimming in the Pacific ocean.

The future continuous can be used for predicting or guessing about future events.

Examples

- He'll be coming to the party tonight, I maybe.
- I guess you'll be feeling like a rest after working all day.
- You'll be missing the food from Spain now you are in the UK.

In the interrogative form, the future continuous can be used to ask politely for information about the future.

Examples

- Will you be bringing your best friend to my party?
- Will George be coming to the party as well?
- Will she be going to the beach house this weekend?
- Will I be sleeping in this room or that room?
